

THE BLUE BARN BOOK

LESSONS ABOUT KINDNESS, COMPASSION,
&
EMPATHY

We teach about KINDNESS, COMPASSION and EMPATHY at the Blue Barn

But what does that MEAN???

JEROME SAYS HE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW...

COMPASSION

means that you want to end someone's suffering. You want them to feel better.

LIKE WHEN COSMO WAS VERY UNCOMFORTABLE ON A HOT DAY.

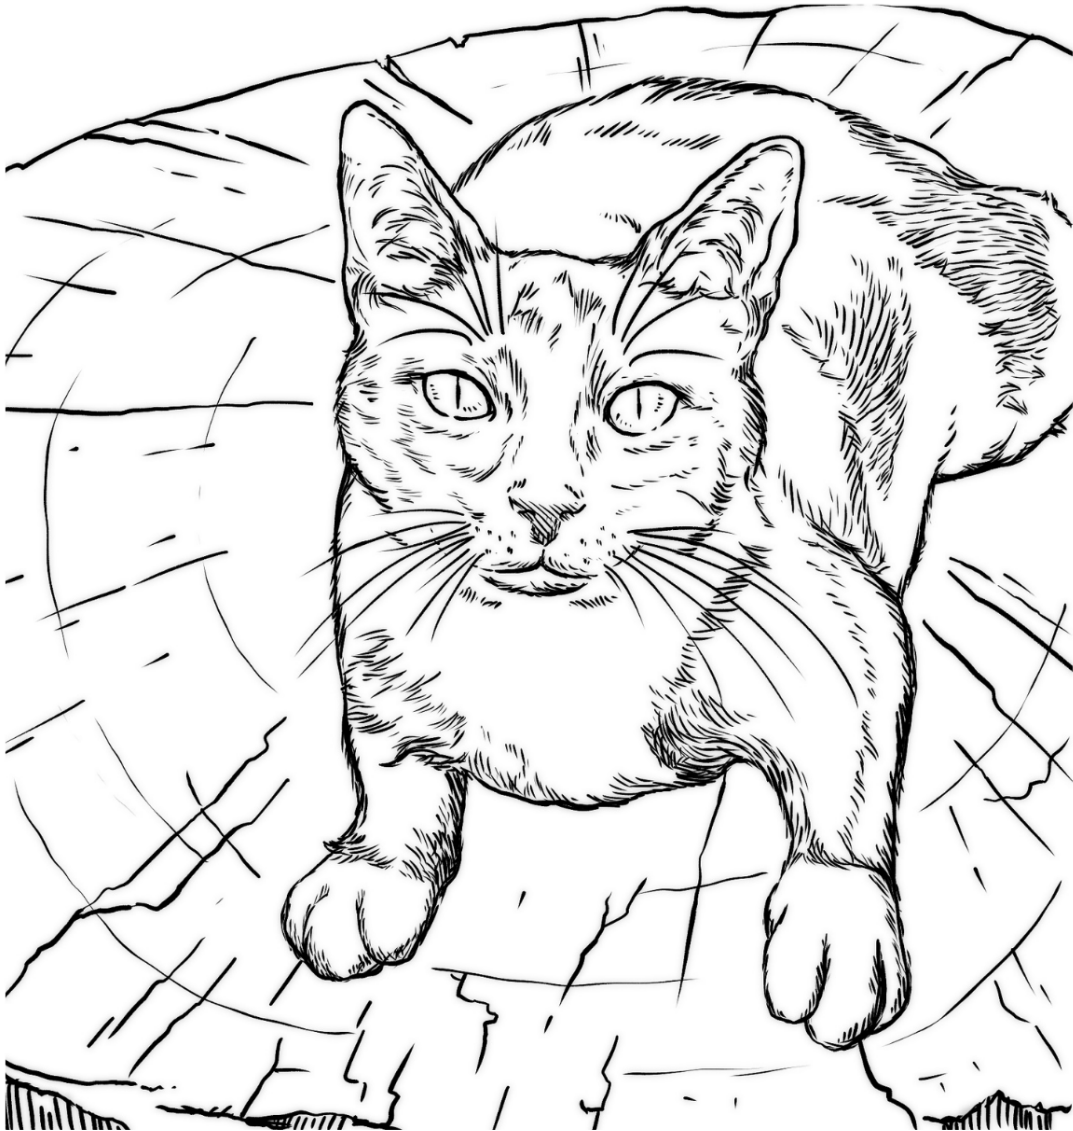

WE FILLED HER POOL SO SHE COULD GO FOR A SWIM

SHE SEEMED MUCH HAPPIER AFTER GOING IN THE WATER.

IT FELT GOOD TO MAKE HER FEEL BETTER. 😊

EMPATHY

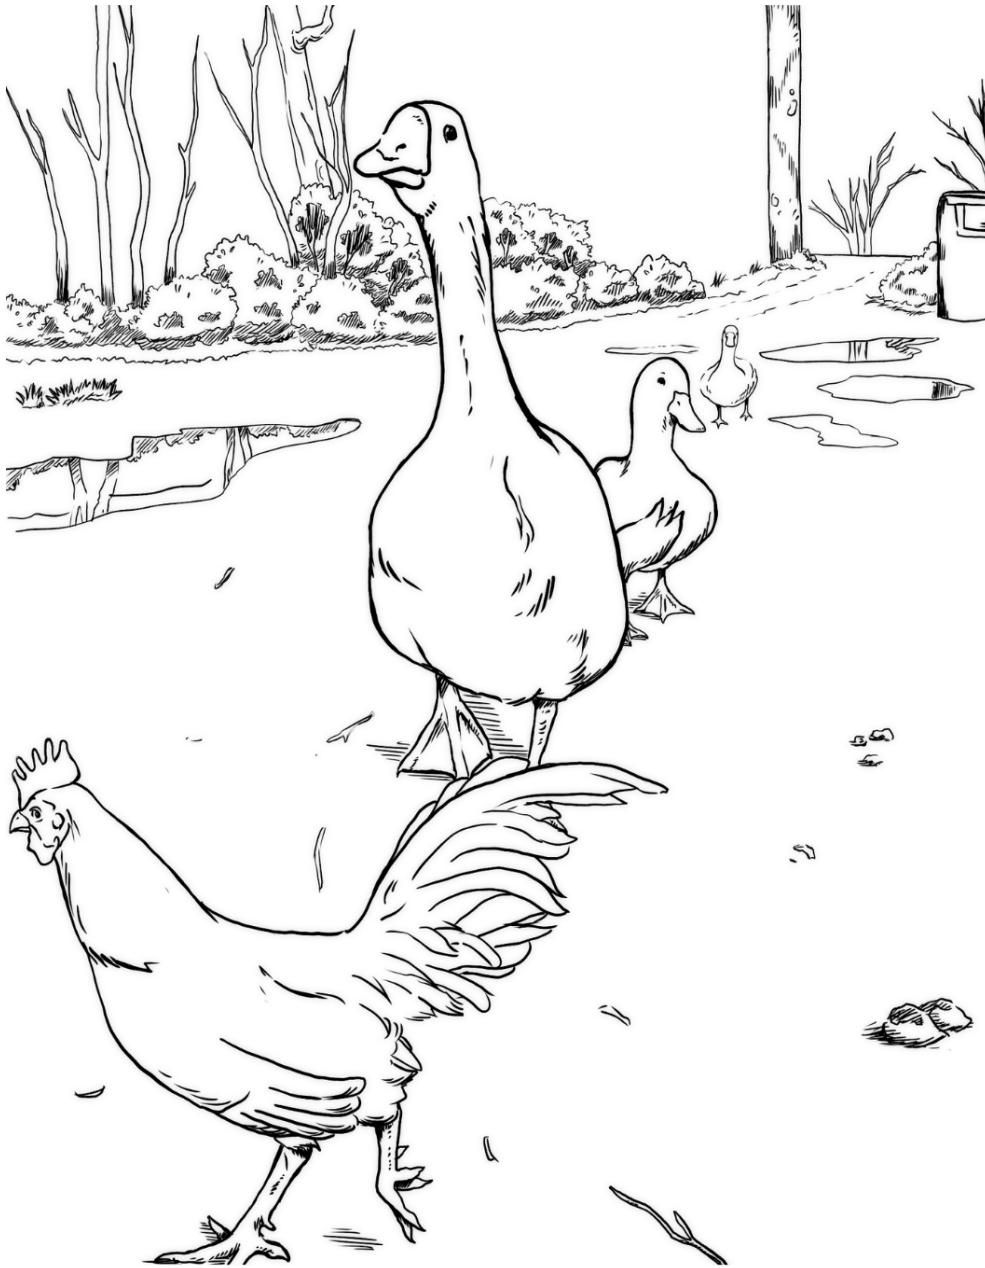

GRETA IS CURIOUS ABOUT THAT ONE...

What does THAT mean???

Some say EMPATHY is like..

TAKING A WALK IN SOMEONE ELSE'S SHOES...

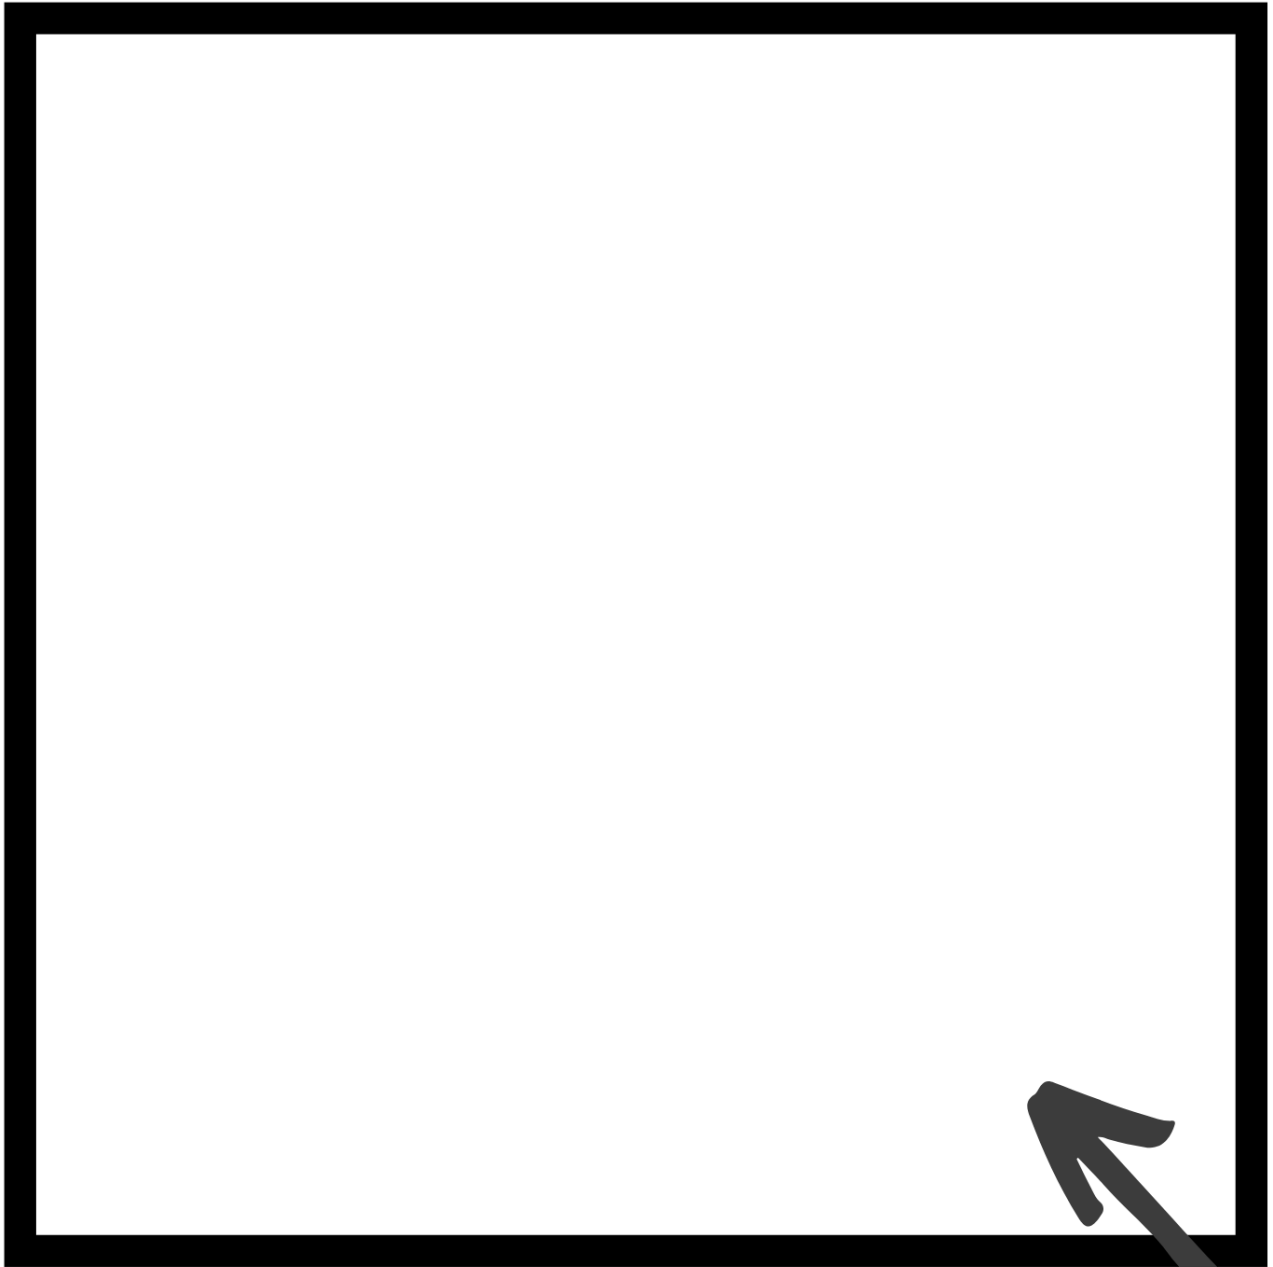

Petey, Tony, Fonzie and Jerome are all different but they do their best to try and understand each other.

NANZA AND PETEY
WOULD SAY IT MEANS BEING ABLE TO UNDERSTAND HOW SOMEONE ELSE IS FEELING

Nanza guesses that Petey feels hungry because he's trying to eat out of his food bowl.

CAN YOU THINK OF A TIME WHEN SOMEONE SHOWED KINDNESS, COMPASSION OR EMPATHY TO YOU??

DRAW A PICTURE ABOUT IT RIGHT HERE
(don't forget to color it in!!) 😊

At Blue Barn Farm & Sanctuary,

we teach and promote kindness, compassion and empathy by bringing youth together with animals rescued from a life of abuse, neglect and abandonment.

By looking through the lens of Humane Education and believing that we are all connected-our Earth, human beings and animal friends-our vision is to spread kindness and acceptance among the people of our communities while preventing the abuse of the animals that live among us.

We hope that you will join us in our mission.

Please feel free to share your drawing with a photo or video and include the hashtag #bluebarnconnection or email it to connection@bluebarnsanctuary.org and we will share it for you!!

Hop on to see what other kids have to say about kindness, compassion & empathy!!
